(Emergency Motion for Temporary
Restraining Order-#14; Emergency
Motion to Request an Order
Shortening Time-#15)

This is the second TRO motion that Shelly's lawyer, Jeffrey D. Conway, has filed in an attempt to prevent the sale of Shelly's house. The Court denied Shelly's first motion on July 30, 2010, because he had not demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits. (Dkt. #7, Order 3.) Mr. Conway has not presented any new arguments in his second motion. However, his request for an order shortening time reveals that the eviction order on Shelly's house will take effect at midnight on Friday, August 27, 2010. Nevertheless, the timing of the eviction notice cannot overcome Shelly's failure to show a likelihood of success on the merits. Accordingly, the Court

1 denies the TRO motion for the reasons stated in the previous order. The Court also denies Shelly's
2 request for an order shortening time as moot.

3 CONCLUSION

4 Accordingly, and for good cause appearing,

5 IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that Plaintiff's Emergency Motion for Temporary
6 Restraining Order (#14) is DENIED.

7 IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Plaintiff's Emergency Motion to Request an 8 Order Shortening Time (#15) is DENIED as moot.

9 Dated: August 26, 2010.
